

My Character's Traits

Reading your script, what do you already know about your character?

Name?

Age?

Ethnicity

Interest?

Likes?

Dislikes?

Other?

Once you have found all the facts you can now start developing your character by answering other questions. Here are a few to start with.

In my monologue my character feels...

My character likes (favorite music, food, activities)...

My character just celebrated their birthday.

My character celebrated their birthday by

One secret my character has is....

If my character was an animal, they would they be a....

What other questions would you like to answer to further develop your character?